Revised Article Proposal

This Local Union cannot be dissolved while there are two hundred fifty (250) dues-paying members therein who desire to continue its existence. When this Local Union ceases to represent employees of any employer, the International Union Executive Board may suspend the charter of this Local Union, and order it dissolved or merged. Upon the dissolution or merger of this Union, all its properties and assets, including its funds, books, and records, shall become the property of the International Union, to be held by the International Union in trust for a period of one (1) year, during which time such property shall be returned to the Union if it is reconstituted. After such one (1) year period, such properties and assets shall become the property of the International Union, and the funds will be placed in the International Union Treasury to be used by the International Union for its general purposes.

Revised Article Proposal

Section 1. A recount may be ordered upon presentation to the President of a petition signed by seven percent (7%) of members of the Union in good standing. The petition must be presented to the President within fourteen (14) calendar days after the election and this petition shall enumerate the reasons why such members believe a recount should be held. (insert change) ~~Upon receipt of a valid recount petition, the President shall call a special membership meeting to elect a Recount Committee of disinterested members of the Union to conduct the recount. The membership meeting shall be scheduled no later than fourteen (14) calendar days following the receipt of the recount petition. The notice for such a meeting shall be in accordance with Article 6 Section 4. A Recount Committee of three (3) members from different bargaining units shall be elected by the members present at the special membership meeting.~~

... The President shall call a special meeting of the Executive Board to consider such petition, and a meeting shall be held no later than fourteen (14) days after receipt of the recount petition. If at this meeting, the Executive Board rules that a recount(s) should be held, it shall instruct the election Board to conduct such recount(s). If the Executive Board denies any part of a recount petition, it shall make a report of it ruling to the next regular or special membership meeting. It shall require a majority vote of those members in good standing present at the membership meeting to reverse all or any part of the Executive Board's decision regarding the recount petition. If the membership reverses any or all parts of the Executive Board's decision, the Election Board shall conduct the specified recount(s).

Any candidate for an office for which a recount has been requested shall be permitted to attend all meetings of the Election Board as an observer, including any recounting of ballots. The Election Board shall report its findings to the membership at the next regular, or special membership meeting. If a report of the Election Board declares that their tabulation shows that a previously declared defeated candidate(s) has actually been the recipient of the greatest number of votes cast for that office, such candidate(s) shall be declared elected.

Revised Article Proposal

Section 1. The election of Stewards and Alternates for each bargaining unit shall take place the month following the election of Officers of the Local Union. Stewards and Alternates shall be elected by each individual bargaining unit by secret ballot at a time(s), date(s) and method(s) called by the President or her/his designee. There shall be no voting by proxy or mail ballot. If a bargaining unit has more than one steward or alternate, the members shall vote for only the Steward and/or Alternate which shall service the department and/or shift in the bargaining unit for which they work.

Section 2. Stewards and Alternates shall hold office for a term of three(3) years unless removed for just cause or until their successors have been elected and installed in office.

Section 3. In lieu of conducting an election, the Executive Board shall have the authority to appoint a steward or alternate if only one (1) member is nominated for the position. The President shall be allowed to appoint a temporary steward between Executive Board meetings. If a Steward resigns or is removed for just cause, the Alternate Steward shall serve as Steward until a new Steward is

Section 2. Dues Increases.

All proposals for increases of dues must be presented to the Executive Board. If the Executive Board approves of such increase in dues, the motion shall be incorporated in its Minutes to be read to the next Membership meeting. There can be no vote or discussion on the subject of the dues increase at that meeting, but it shall be held over until the succeeding Membership meeting. The succeeding Membership meeting shall be scheduled at least two (2) calendar months following the reading of the Minutes to allow sufficient time for Absent Voter's Ballots to be requested, mailed to members, and returned. The meeting notice for the succeeding meeting shall contain a statement informing the members of the nature of the proposal and that a vote will be taken at that Membership meeting. A majority vote, by secret ballot, shall be required to constitute acceptance of the proposed dues increase.

No Change

There shall be no proxy or mail ballot except as specified in Article 28. The votes shall be counted, and a report given to the members present. Notice of such meeting shall be given to all members in good standing not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of such meeting.
